FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2020 LEGISLATIVE SESSIONAnalysis

HB 24 establishes a limited language immersion teacher certificate to teach any subject if the language of instruction is not English. The bill defines the conditions for this certificate.

HB 24 changes the name of the current Alaska Native Language Preservation and Advisory Council (ANLPAC) to the "Council for Alaska Native Languages." The legislation also adds two additional voting members to the Council, bringing the total of voting members to seven.

The ANLPAC has been meeting via videoconference over the last year, so the Division of Community and Regional Affairs does not anticipate any fiscal impact from this legislation.
